PRINCIPALS MESSAGE

MR. T. NTLANGANO PRINCIPAL

Dear Graduates,

Today is not just a ceremony, it is a celebration of courage, resilience and the belief that dreams are worth fighting for. Each one of you carries a story of sacrifice, of long nights of study and moments of doubt, yet you always found the strength to rise again. It is in those moments that true character is shaped, and today you stand tall and victorious.

As the Principal of Ikhala TVET College, my heart is full of pride. You have become more than students. You are now ambassadors of hope, torchbearers of knowledge and proof that the future of our communities is in capable hands. Education is not only about receiving a certificate, it is about transforming lives, lifting families and rebuilding nations.

This milestone is not the end. It is the beginning. Step into the world with boldness, with intent and with the confidence that you are enough. Do not dim your light to fit into spaces. Shine so brightly that you create new spaces for others to follow.

On behalf of the Council, Management and Staff of Ikhala TVET College, I congratulate you and your families. May the journey ahead be filled with purpose, service and greatness.

With deep joy and pride,
Mr T. ENtlangano
Principal

COUNCIL CHAIRPERSON MESSAGE

MR S MBOTSHANE COUNCIL CHAIRPERSON

Dear Graduates,

Today we celebrate not only your success but also the promise you carry for our nation. Graduation is more than a personal milestone, it is a declaration that education remains the key to progress and renewal in South Africa.

As Council, we believe that Ikhala TVET College must continue to produce graduates who are skilled, principled and ready to lead. Our communities need young people with vision, courage and discipline, people who will not only secure their own futures but also contribute to the rebuilding of our society.

You are that generation. Step forward with confidence. The future is waiting for your ideas, your energy and your leadership.

On behalf of Council, I congratulate you and your families. May this achievement be the beginning of lives defined by service, excellence and impact.

With pride,
Mr S Mbotshane
Council Chairperson

ACADEMIC GOWN

- Diploma graduands are required to wear the standard black academic gown, which serves as a symbol of academic achievement, unity, and scholarly accomplishment.
- Degree graduands also wear the standard black academic gown.
- The Doctoral (PhD) gown is red, signifying the highest level of academic attainment.

ACADEMIC HOOD

Graduands are awarded an academic hood corresponding to the qualification they receive. The hood is placed on the graduand during the graduation ceremony as a visible mark of academic attainment. Each hood reflects the level of study, while the inside lining signifies the official colours of the qualification stream.

GRADUATION CAP (MORTARBOARD)

Graduands complete their academic dress with a black cap, commonly known as the mortarboard, which symbolises scholarly achievement and tradition. The tassel of the cap is worn on the left after the qualification is officially conferred.

DIPLOMA COLOURS

Each diploma qualification is represented by a specific colour displayed on the hood lining. These colours distinguish the various fields of study.

-  CIVIL ENGINEERING- OLIVE GREEN
-  ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING – GREY
-  BUSINESS MANAGEMENT – ROYAL BLUE
